Holiday Homework

(2019-20)

CLASS – VIII

Dear Students

Enjoy your holidays; however, spend an hour or more a day keeping in touch with your books to be back in school after the summer vacation for the periodic exam.

We are incorporating projects to enhance the academic, creative and learning skills of students wherein they will prepare projects for all the subjects based on the given theme. This endeavor has been taken up with the objective of inculcating the approach of understanding the diverse subjects or fields and the spirit of ingenious learning.

We are looking forward to children coming back to school after rejuvenating holidays on 1st July 2019, with smiling faces and joy in their hearts.

We wish you abundance, happiness, peace and a session filled with hope. All of us at SPS, Gurugram wish you the best of holidays.

Regards

Team SPS

English

The exciting Summer Vacation is around the corner as it's the time to relax, read and gear up for the upcoming months. Also, it is a wonderful time to catch up with some extra reading. It is very important to fire their imagination and foster an outlook that helps them explore, discover and rediscover. Summer Vacation is the best and fruitful time for learning beyond the text books and cultivate the habit of reading. The English Holiday Homework designed would not only enhance the language of the children but also help them to work independently and nurture their creativity.

How I Taught My Grandmother to Read and other stories By Sudha Murty- Extra Reading Book for Class VIII.

Get started! Read the instructions carefully.

- ◇ Use colourful A-3 sheets to complete the tasks.
- ◇ Use your own creative ideas and make it attractive.

Task-1- A book cover based on the short story has to be designed. Caricatures/cartoons/drawings can also be used. Ensure that the drawings reflect or relate to the short story.

Task -2- Prepare a chart and write down at least 10 verbs from the assigned story and write the noun forms of the same. Also, add some new words from the story to the chart with their meanings.

Task-3- Draw the character you like of the assigned story and write a few suitable adjectives/ phrases that describe the character.

Task-4 - Prepare a story map/ flow chart of the story according to your understanding. The story map should include the plot, setting, names of the characters, ending and what you liked the most about the story. You can use your creativity and design your own map.
